Stronger links, better opportunities: Networking of Serbian students in Germany

INTRODUCTION

Many migrants contribute to their home countries' development while living abroad: some establish diaspora organisations and carry out projects on a voluntary basis, while others set up businesses and build economic ties between countries. They build bridges between their country of origin and residence and also serve to convey and transfer know-how and innovations.

In the field of development cooperation, the term »diaspora« refers to a (nonhomogeneous) group of people with a migration background who live abroad and at the same time maintain emotional and material ties to their country of origin. Often people in the diaspora organise themselves in communities (associations) for certain purposes as »members of diaspora communities« or »migrant organisations«. Diaspora communities are also founded based on a common profession, as is the case for engineers or doctors. Through knowledge and technology transfer, financial contributions, mobilization of networks and contacts and the business cooperation, diaspora is able to promote development processes in their country of origin.

A large number of highly skilled migrants live and work in Germany, some of whom have been educated at German universities or who were able to upgrade their professional skills through employment experience. Student migration is the movement of students who study outside their country of birth or citizenship for a period of 12 months or more. With the rapid rise of international education more and more students are seeking higher education in foreign countries. Studying abroad can be beneficial: after graduation with knowledge and skills gained abroad foreign students have possibilities either to start a career in the hosting country or to seek their professional perspectives in their country of origin. A significant number of migrants decide at some point to return to their countries of origin on a temporary or permanent basis, enabling them to share their knowledge directly at local level. Different motivation lies behind decision making "to stay or to return", but some factors are repeating more often: employment possibilities, wages, space for professional development, networks and a feeling of belonging to the culture and place of origin.

As an actor in the field of development cooperation, the Centre for International Cooperation and Development (CIM) promotes the positive potential of migration.

The Organization of Serbian Students Abroad (OSSA) is an international, non-profit, non-governmental and non-political organization. Its goal is to gather Serbian students studying abroad and to provide assistance to those students who, after successful completion of their studies wish to return to their country of origin and begin their professional careers.

This event is an initiative of the Programme Migration for Development, hosted by CIM and OSSA. It outlines key factor for decision making whether to start a career in a country of origin or hosting country. It will offer an opportunity to gather Serbian students in Germany and discuss topics related to benefits from migration.

ABOUT PROGRAMME MIGRATION FOR DEVELOPMENT

The global Programm Migration for Development (PMD) is commissioned by German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ) and implemented under the umbrella of the Centre for Migration and Development (CIM) – a joint operation of the GIZ and the International Placement Services (ZAV) of the Federal Employment Agency of Germany (Bundesagentur für Arbeit, BA).

The global objective of the program is to strengthen the development-relevant contributions of migrants in their countries of origin and improve the framework conditions for legal migration in selected partner countries, in the following fields of activity:

- (1) Migration policy advice
- (2) Migration advice
- (3) Knowledge-sharing by returning experts
- (4) Business ideas for development
- (5) Cooperation with diaspora organisations and diaspora experts
- (6) Reintegration and return

The Programme Migration for Development was extended to Serbia in 2016. Programme components Migration advice, Cooperation with diaspora organisations and diaspora experts, Knowledge-sharing by returning experts and Reintegration and return are currently falling under the activities in Serbia. The Study on Serbian Diaspora in Germany was conducted within the programme and it gives the overview of the Serbian migration movement to Germany and the profile of Serbian diaspora in Germany, including the recommendations for the development-oriented integration of the diaspora (organisations, associations and individuals).

UVOD

U celom svetu društva i pojedinci su u pokretu: oko 250 miliona ljudi danas živi izvan svoje matične zemlje. Time se stvaraju šanse: međunarodna raznolikost i razmena podstiču privredne, političke i društvene procese u zemljama prihvata i u zemljama porekla.

Migranti predstavljaju važne mostove između zemalja. Svojim znanjem, idejama, iskustvima i kontaktima unose održive promene. Oni na razne načine pomažu svojim matičnim zemljama da ostanu perspektivne, a istovremeno učestvuju u oblikovanju društava u novim zemljama. Kao akter u oblasti međunarodne razvojne saradnje Centar za međunarodne migracije i razvoj (CIM) u tome vidi ogroman potencijal. Mnogobrojne aktivnosti CIM-a podstiču angažovanje migranata bilo da se radi o savetovanjima za migracije, savetovanjima u vezi sa povratkom ili saradnjom sa dijasporom.

Termin dijaspora se u našem kontekstu odnosi na (heterogenu) grupu ljudi sa migracionom pozadinom koji žive u inostranstvu i istovremeno održavaju emotivne i materijalne veze sa zemljom porekla. CIM se obraća osobama u dijaspori koji se za određene svrhe organizuju u zajednicama (udruženjima) kao "članovi zajednica iz dijaspore" ili "udrženja migranata". Članovi takvih zajednica u dijaspori su povezani njihovim zajedničkim poreklom iz iste zemlje ili mesta, ili se zajednica zasniva na zajedničkoj profesiji, kao što je to slučaj kod inženjera ili doktora.

Srbija ima dugu istoriju migracionih kretanja ka Nemačkoj, koja je započeta 60-tih godina 20. veka. Za potrebe programa Migration for Development je izrađena Studija o srpskoj dijaspori u Nemačkoj koja daje istorijski pregled nastanka, profil i stepen organizovanosti srpske diaspore u Nemačkoj.

Prema podacima iz studije, zasnovanim na nemačkim statistikama 2016. godine je 223.000 srpskih državljana živilo u Nemačkoj. Utvrđivanje veličine diaspore je samo jedan od izazova za zainteresovane strane. Povezanost i kvalitet odnosa između diaspore i zemlje porekla je druga velika oblast, koja je ujedno i kontekst programa Migration for Development.

Ovaj događaj je inicijativa programa Migration for Development i Centra za dijasporu Privredne komore Srbije. Predviđen format je radionica, na kojoj organizatori žele da zajedno sa zainteresovanim osobama u dijaspori diskutuju o ulozi umrežavanja i mogućnostima saradnje između diaspore i Srbije, bilo da je u pitanju poslovna, neprofitna ili akademska saradnja. Takođe organizovanost diaspore i njen kulturni identitet će biti razmatrani.

CILJEVI

- Umrežavanje
- Razmena informacija
- Diskusija o interesovanjima i potrebama diaspore
- Mogućnosti saradnje

UČESNICI

- Predstavnici srpske poslovne dijaspore u Nemačkoj, srpskih udruženja iz Nemačke i zainteresovani pojedinci
- Predstavnici relevantnih organizacija iz Srbije

Broj učesnika je ograničen. Vaše mesto na radionici možete rezervisati slanjem e-maila na milica.rebic@giz.de. Troškove učešća na radionici snosi CIM.

PROGRAM

Radionica nastoji da pruži priliku učesnicima iz Srbije i članovima srpske dijaspore u Nemačkoj da diskutuju o (novim formatima) povezivanja i angažovanja dijaspore, kao i mogućnostima i interesovanju za saradnju dijaspore sa organizacijama u Srbiji. Ovde razlikujemo poslovnu saradnju od neprofitnih aktivnosti dijaspore, kako ova dva vida saradnje zahtevaju drugačiji pristup.

Radionica u prvi plan stavlja značaj umrežavanja (networking) i želi da kreira priliku da se identifikuju interesovanja i potrebe zainteresovanih strana. Preporuke iz Studije o srpskoj dijaspori u Nemačkoj čine tematsku osnovu na radionici.

O PROGRAMU MIGRATION FOR DEVELOPMENT

Globalni Program Migration for Development podržan je od strane Nemačkog saveznog ministarstva za razvojnu saradnju i njegova implementacija se sprovodi pod okriljem Centra za međunarodne migracije i razvoj (CIM) – zajedničke kooperacije GIZ-a i Centralne službe za međunarodno tržište rada i posredovanje stručne radne snage nemačke Savezne agencije za rad (ZAV/BA).

Globalni cilj Programa je jačanje doprinosa migranata, koji su relevantni za razvoj u njihovim matičnim državama, kao i poboljšanje okvirnih uslova za legalnu migraciju u odabranim partnerskim zemljama, putem aktivnosti u sledećim oblastima:

- (1) Savetovanje u oblasti migracione politike
- (2) Savetovanje u oblasti migracije
- (3) Razvojno orijentisan povratak stručnjaka
- (4) Poslovne ideje za razvoj
- (5) Saradnja sa dijasporom
- (6) Povratak i reintegracija

Program Migration for Development se u Srbiji sprovodi od 2016. godine. Trenutno su aktuelne programske komponente Savetovanje u oblasti migracija, Razvojno orijentisan povratak, Saradnja sa dijasporom i Povratak i reintegracija. Studija o srpskoj dijaspori u Nemačkoj je izrađena za potrebe programa i daje istorijski pregled, profil i stepen organizovanosti srpske diaspore u Nemačkoj, kao i preporuke za program Migration for Development.
